Vacancy for the co-option of two new Councillors

Would you like to join the Parish Council and help make decisions about how our Parish is run?

Due to a casual vacancy that has arisen, the Parish Council currently has one Councillor vacancy for co-option.

The Parish Council is the first tier of Local Government representing our local community, delivering services to meet local needs and improving quality of life and community well-being for the benefit of all. We also have links with the District and County Councils.

If you are interested and want to find out more, speak to one of our Councillors, contact the Clerk, or come along to our next Parish Council meeting on Wednesday 10th January 2024 at 19:30 in Churchinford Village Hall.

No experience is necessary, and training is available. You can also read about what our Parish Councillors might be expected to do in the Good Councillors Guide, available by email from the Parish Clerk.

If you would like to join us, you should contact the Parish Clerk at the above address (either by post or email) for an application form. Completed application forms must be received by the Parish Clerk no later than mid-day on Wednesday 14th February 2024. All applications received will be considered, at our Parish Council meeting later the same day when a vote will be taken to co-opt the new Parish Councillor.

To qualify, a person must be a British subject, over 18 years old and an elector; must reside within Churchstanton Parish or within three miles of it or occupy as owner or tenant any land or premises therein or have their principal or only place of work there and must not be disqualified from holding office as a Councillor.
